

COMPANY PROFILE

Dear friends,

Thank you for your attention and interest in our company.

Isimsan started its story as a small workshop 35 years ago. Today, I am proud to say that Isimsan have become an international renowned expert in the fields of mixing and other food and chemicals processing technologies.

Our success is based on strict quality controls, on continuous enhances of production processes and on comprehensive customer services.

In compliance with these guidelines, our ambition and enthusiasm has rewarded us with long term and well-named clients throughout the globe.

We will continue to progress on this path by pursuing new markets, prolonging existing friendships and establishing new ones, while regarding the foundations of Isimsan's success.

Become a part of this. We are gladly there for you.

Yours,

Mustafa Zeki Güner
